Rochester Hills Fire Department Hosts 9/11 Remembrance Ceremony
Honors the Many Lives of First Responders Lost

Rochester Hills, MI – The Rochester Hills Fire Department will be hosting a September 11th Remembrance Ceremony at Fire Department Headquarters (Station No. 1) on Sunday, September 11th from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm.

Residents are invited to join the Rochester Hills community as they remember the lives that were lost and honor the Firefighters, Police Officers, EMS professionals, and the military personnel who serve our country.

"As we pause to reflect on that horrific Tuesday morning, 15 years ago, we must never forget the way that day changed us as a nation," states Mayor Bryan K. Barnett. "We also honor the men and women who serve as our emergency responders and those who protect our country to give us the freedoms we have and enjoy today"

Armed Services, Fire, EMS, and Police members are asked to attend in Class A (Dress Uniform) or highest level of uniform available.

Please R.S.V.P. by September 8, 2016 to Administrative Coordinator Deb Happy at happyd@rochesterhills.org or call (248) 656-4720
