

Governmental Property Tax Revenue

Taxes are levied by the City to fund services that are performed for the combined benefit of residents. There are several variables that affect the growth or decline of tax revenues including the addition or loss of taxable value, statutory regulations, and the addition or expiration of dedicated millages.

TREND ANALYSIS:

Taxable valuations in the City of Rochester Hills increased by approximately 2.4% per year, on average, for the period 2006-2009. However, taxable valuations decreased by -21.6% from 2010-2013 before an increase of 1.3% in 2014. The increase in 2015 is due primarily to an increase in the Fire millage. An increase of 3.3% is anticipated in 2016.
